Program for June 13, 2017

Randy Benteman, Natural Resources Officer (Game Warden) with Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism presented information water recreation and boating. Randy was born and raised in Topeka but his career as a Game Warden of the last 32 years has taking him throughout Kansas it is only recently that he has returned to the Topeka and Shawnee county area. The roll of a Game Warden has changed primarily due to advances in technology. Game Wardens are state law enforcement officers just like State Troopers and take into account total public safety. Rand also had a Rescue Air Boat on display in the parking lot that is used for shallow water operation.

Looking Ahead:

June 20, 2017: Sheriff Herman Jones

June 27, 2017: Larry Mah, Shawnee County Treasurer on his trip to Galapagos Island

July 4, 2017: No Meeting!
