November 17: Optimist Pancake Feed at Logan elementary

PROGRAM:

Oct 16: Lana Gordon, Ks Dept of Labor A former elementary school teacher and served 12 years as a State Representative, she was appointed by Gov. Brownback in 2012. Unemployment benefits is the largest program for this dept. Worker compensation, industrial health and safety, labor market data are other primary functions.

The number of unemployed Kansans matches the number of job vacancies. Education programs are working with employers to prepare students for the careers with job vacancies. For example, Career Navigator was developed to assist with increasing the number of trained applicants for available jobs.

Looking Ahead:

Oct 23: Josh Powell substituted for Richard Carlson, Ks. Dept of Transportation

Oct 30: Phil Anderson, Topeka Capital-Journal newspaper

Drawings this week:

Weekly: Charlie Galligher

Progressive: #92 Frank Yeoman

President's Quote:

“Opportunities don’t happen, you create them.”
- Chris Grosser
