Newsletter of the Sunrise Optimist Club

Today (October 30th) Sunrise Optimist began with invocation offered by Richard Sundermeyer and flag salute lead by Rocky Fund. Dave Ireland introduced Derrick Moore as his guest.

Kieth Bodine was the only birthday so the club enjoyed singing happy birthday.

Rocky announced the winner of the Gator Giveaway. Danny Carlson of Carlson Auto Auction was able to pick up the Gator after the fish fry on Saturday. Rocky thanked all who helped with the fish fry and all who gathered items for the silent auction, especially Dave Ireland and Gary Domer. The four pies left over were offered for $5.00 each.

Gary didn't have the total but he was sure over 1,000 chances were sold for the Gator Giveaway.

Frank Law announced the Pancake Feed would be held on Saturday before Thanksgiving from 7:00 AM until 11:00 AM at East Indianola School. He passed a sign up sheet and asked for help from 6:00 AM until 12☺) noon.

Kieth Bodine announced that the Christmas tree sales was going as scheduled and had ordered only 325 trees this year due to declining tree sales and more groups selling trees. Trees are being sold at Dillon's at SW 21st Street and SW Belle Avenue. Kieth or Lloyd Becker will have a sign up sheet next meeting and sales should begin before the Thanksgiving weekend.

Gary Slimmer announced that on November 6th the program would be Frank Benteman of the Frankfort Boys and about the town of Frankfort, Kansas made to WW II.

Gary announced Sarah Ganser from Breakthrough House Compeer Program. Sarah gave a history and explained their programs.

After adjournment the last of the pies were sold.
