Men of genius are admired; men of wealth are envied; men of power are feared; but only men of character are trusted.

Trust is the single most important factor in both personal and professional relationships.

Shortcuts aren't always.

Following the path of least resistance is what makes men and rivers crooked.

One man with courage is a majority

Climbing the hill is more fun than standing on top.

Don't let the crowd pressure you; stand for something or you'll fall for something.

It's tough to fly with the eagles in the morning when you stay up all night with the owls.

It's often WHO you know that get you there but it's WHAT you know that keeps you there.

Personality has the power to open doors, but it takes character to keep them open.

You can get by on charm for about 15 minutes. After that, you'd better know something.

Ability will enable a man to get to the top...but character is the only thing that keeps him from falling off.

I am only one; but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; I will not refuse to do the something I can do - Helen Keller

No man knows his strengths who does not know his weaknesses.

There is no right way to do a wrong thing. There is never a wrong time to do the right thing.

The right to do something does not mean that doing it is right.

Every cider apple has a worm; there is small choice in rotten apples; a rotten apple spoils its companion.

Some money costs too much.

The most important things in life aren't things.

Closed with the creed
