August 23rd: Judge Tommy Webb, retired judge from Sublett, KS. He started by telling us about his childhood. Digging in trash containers for food, and pushing trash to one side so the kids could huddle then pulling trash on top of them to keep warm. When he was about 7 he went to an orphanage, they got to pick their birthday! He was only there for 6 months and a man named Roy Webb from Tulsa OK adopted him. Before they boarded the plane Roy took him to a restaurant to eat, they did not speak same language so he just pointed to food and the waitress kept bringing it to him, before he left he would put the food in his pockets, "never leave food behind he said". His mother Mrs. Webb was a teacher in a less privileged school. She had a whole wall of different cereals, to feed her students every morning and their siblings also. He served in the US Marines .
